Denver is hosting the Fall North American Bridge Championships November 26-December 6., 2015.

The host hotel is the Sheraton Denver Downtown, which is the same location as ten years ago (the hotel was an Adams Mark Hotel in 2005). All events will be at the Sheraton, which is convenient for bridge players. Also a plus is the free hop-on, hop-off shuttle from the hotel to the 16th Street Mall, which offers shopping, restaurants, night-clubs and bars galore. Also galore are the bridge events ... morning, afternoon, evening and the zip Knockouts at 11:30 p.m. - something every day for every level. Ten years ago the weather was fantastic, sweater and light coat weather with no rain or snow ... this year looks to be the same. Tournament co-chairs Bonnie Bagley and Roy Weinstein and their able volunteers from the whole state of Colorado are working to provide a pleasurable experience for you. For more information go to:

Taos Museums

La Hacienda de los Martinez by Janet Burns

Museums

Bump your head on the same doorway as Kit Carson. Taos history is filled with colorful characters who helped make Taos what it is today. From trappers and traders to wealthy heiresses, remittance men, legendary artists, and far-sighted entrepreneurs. Taos historic museums, many of which are National Historic Landmarks, offer a glimpse of how our early settlers

Blumenschein Home & Museum

E.L. Blumenschein is credited with starting the Taos Society of Artists and his home has become a shrine to his creative genius.

The Couse-Sharp Historic Site

These are the homes and studios of two founders of the internationally-known Society that established Taos as an art colony.

Harwood Museum of Art

The museum is part of University of New Mexico and is located one block southwest of Taos Plaza on historic Ledoux Street.

La Hacienda de los Martinez

The hacienda was once an important trade center for the northern boundary of the Spanish Empire.

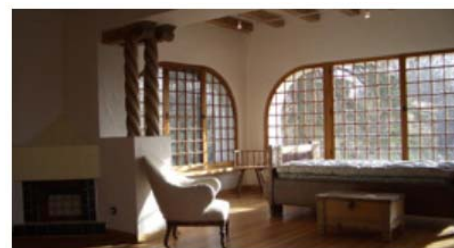

Millicent Rogers Museum

The museum was formed around Roger's distinguished collection of Native American silver and turquoise jewelry, and Navajo and Rio Grande...

Kit Carson Home & Museum

The museum is in the home of Kit Carson and his wife Josefa where they raised their children between 1843 to 1867. It is open to the public...

Taos Art Museum at the Fechin House

The museum is located in the home built by Russian artist Nicolai Fechin in 1927. It is half mile north of Taos Plaza

Online results include hand records, pop-up photos, strength of field, personal recaps, extra trick analysis, links to individual lists of games, graphs, total masterpoints, etc.

ACBL District 17 is using BridgeResults at all Regional Tournaments

Replay the Hands on your Computer!

The results of the Taos Regional are published online on BridgeResults.net. Hand records are displayed for each board of pair games. There is also a special feature to let you play the hand again on your computer or smart phone through the Bridge Solver website developed by John Goacher. Below the display of each hand you will find a "Replay" button. Click this button and an interactive session will start with this specific hand.

Select a contract at the bottom right and play the hand interactively to investigate various lines of play. On the opening lead the maximum number of tricks that can be made by the defenders for each possible lead is shown, assuming optimum subsequent play by the declarer and defenders. After each card is played the same information is shown for the next position, the optimum cards being highlighted in green at each stage.
