After a spirited auction. I doubled 5C. Automatic. I don't think I can make 5S and I expect to cash the AK of hearts and make the King of clubs behind the club bidder. Maybe the Ace of spades will cash too.

I lead the Ace of hearts. Dummy is not what I wanted. It only has one heart and the ace of clubs is behind my king. So, I lead the King of hearts, dummy ruffs, but now my King of clubs will be good. I am fortunate the ace of spade cashes for down 1.
